The asterisks indicate the present aldermen.

Alderman James R. Buckley will have little trouble in being re-nominated by the Democrats for the Thirtieth Ward. He has made a magnificent record and is, deservedly so, popular with everybody.

Alderman Charles Twigg, of the Twenty-eighth Ward, deserves re-election.

tion at the hands of his constituents. He has proven himself to be an able and conscientious public official and has represented the people of his ward in a creditable manner. His attitude in the pending telephone controversy has won the admiration of everybody opposed to trusts and monopolies.

Harry H. Lampert, one of Chicago's successful young business men, is making a great campaign for the Democratic nomination for alderman in the Twenty-third ward and all indications point to a victory for him on primary day. All factions in the ward are uniting on his candidacy and his nomination will result in his certain election. Mr. Lampert is of German parentage and was born in 1882 in Evanston, Ill. James Hamilton Lewis on a set of books on "Construction and Constitutionality of Statutes," which will be published this summer.
